Dedication

It is common knowledge that many hours of patience and practice are necessary to become a successful interpreter. Yet we have two very special, dedicated people at NCSD who are tremendously skilled and always willing to give of their own time to be of service to us.

In recognition and appreciation, we, the Class of 1983, wish to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Jane Robinson, a high school teacher, and Mrs. Sally Dixon, a teacher in Jeter Hall. Thank you for being our ears!

A Missionary From Korea

Miss Maxine Strobridge, a missionary from Ephphatha Deaf Orphanage, South Korea, came to visit NCSD. She lectured and showed slides of the deaf children and their culture.

Miss Strobridge was delighted to see our student, Joy Derrick. Joy was an orphan in Korea until Dr. and Mrs. William Derrick, Jr. adopted her.

LeAnne King was fascinated by Joy's Korean dress.

Miss Strobridge explained many of the cultural differences of the American and Korean people.
